

THREE HUNDRED AND TWELVE PAIRS OF WOMEN'S LONG GLOVES AT 50c A PAIR.

It's one thing to get long Gloves at any price these days, still another to secure such values as these are at 50c. We were among the few to be favored with this offer and our apportionment was twenty-six dozen pairs. No more could we buy at any price.

These are a twelve-button leather-finished fabric Glove, prettier than a lisle, much more serviceable than a silk and from 50 to 75 per cent cheaper than either. Others that have secured them are getting 69c, 75c and in some cases $1.00 a pair. Our price while they last will be ONLY 50c A PAIR.

Colors Are Black, White, Tan and Slate.

Bill Thompson, ex-Cuban Giant and present catcher on the Concord state league base ball team, got back this afternoon from a Vermont trip, which was a treat in several respects. Bill's worst spot personally is represented by a lump the size of a goose egg, where Pitcher Fraser of Barre-Montpelier hit him in the head with a pitched ball Tuesday. The hitting was even that Bill had played his last game of ball, but as usual, he fooled them.—Concord Monitor of yesterday.

The following from a New Hampshire exchange will be of interest to Barre readers: "When Dr. H. H. Gillette of New Mills, Vt., died in Boston this week his published obituaries gave him the credit of being the oldest alumnus of the Dartmouth Medical college from which he graduated in the class of 1847. But the supplement to the general catalogue, issued by the college authorities last year, gives as living: Dr. C. B. Walworth of Ellipticalville, N. Y., a member of the class of 1833; Dr. Isaac Raphael Arrias, '38, of Surinam, South America; Dr. Lemuel Rugg, '43, of Compton, Que.; Dr. Andrew E. Field, '46, of Barre, Vt.; and four other members of Dr. Gillette's own class of 1847."

Best Suits in America for $15

We are willing to be judged by our $15.00 Suits. In the first place, they are equal to the usual $18.00 and $20.00 Suits sold elsewhere. That's a saving to begin with. Then they are the famous "Rossman Clothes," and that speaks volumes for their style, materials and workmanship. That's the whole thing in a nutshell. But another point is that there are hundreds of good dressers in town who think they are the best ever; and we want a lot more men to try them who think that $15.00 ought to buy a rattling good Suit. Better try one. A new lot of patterns just in from their celebrated workshop. "Rossman-made Clothes" bear the Union label.
